

FAIRYLAND IS NOT WHAT YOU THINK IT IS SERIES

Franziska Miller was supposed to be buying wine.
Getting abducted into Fairyland was not on the shopping list.

At fifty-one, Franzi has a job, two teenage children and absolutely no reason to believe in magic.

Then a grocery shopping trip ends with her drugged, kidnapped and thrown naked into a dungeon with one instruction:

Kill the Incubus, Wyitch, and you'll be free!

There are several problems with this plan.

Franzi isn't a Wyitch.

The Incubus is far too attractive for her peace of mind.

And after two years in chains, Damian Roseheart would much rather escape with her than die for his captors.

Then magic answers her.

Portals open. Wounds heal beneath her hands. A sword suddenly feels as familiar as breathing.

Escaping should have been enough.

Instead, Franzi discovers that Damian is only one of countless prisoners being tortured and drained for their magic.

She starts rescuing them.

Unfortunately, Fairyland is full of monsters, dangerous men, ancient rivalries and secrets that reach across three Empires.

Abducting Franzi was a very bad mistake!
